

If you're a man over 40... Prepare to be amazed!

Because one brilliant medical insider has rediscovered a shockingly powerful, 11th century secret to youthful strength, boundless endurance and masculine swagger

Dear friend,

If you're a man over 40, listen up. In the next few minutes, you're going to learn about the most exciting discovery since...women.

A fast, simple, natural way to thwart the cruel trick of nature that ultimately robs you of your strength, gusto and swagger.

A truly unique, anti-aging breakthrough that gets you up and keeps you up—feeling energized and alive, strong and confident, enjoying the youthful masculinity of men 10, 20, maybe even 30 years younger.

Forget multi-vitamins...

Forget testosterone boosters...

Forget pounding pavement and pumping iron...

WORTHLESS compared to what you're about to discover!

You're about to discover the last strength-enhancing, anti-aging solution you'll ever try. A doctor-formulated breakthrough for men that can help you:

- Switch on your confidence and get noticed—natural boosts in testosterone production will help ensure the kind of masculine swagger that turns heads and leaves an impression.
- Transform yourself from the “Michellin Man” into Superman—whether you go for a bike ride, out dancing or if you just need to stop to change your tire, you'll have the strength you need right when you need it
- Enjoy that fit, toned, lean physique—with a healthy, balanced metabolism and reduced fat absorption...remember that old suit you thought would never fit again?
- Maintain a sharp mind and a competitive edge—with a healthy, well-protected brain, you'll stay sharp and in control, at work, at parties and at family gatherings
- Feel like a truly younger, more vibrant man—with a healthy inflammatory response, powerful antioxidants and the support you need to maintain a healthy heart, joints, prostate and more

And just wait until you see what it can do for you in the bedroom!

The story behind this discovery starts lifetimes ago when a man called Avicenna, the author of one of the oldest medical texts in known history, identified the underlying cause of male aging.

He wrote:

“After the period of youth, heat starts to diminish due to the decline in moisture...in the absence of a natural reversal, all bodily functions reach their end.”

At first, it doesn't seem to make much sense, right?

You need moisture to re-ignite heat?

But, it turns out this ancient doctor and philosopher couldn't be more correct!

One of today's most brilliant, progressive medical doctors not only proved it...he uncovered the solution.

And it's about to become the gold standard in truly healthy aging

Hi, I'm Katherine Wheeler, publisher of Dr. Marc Micozzi's Daily Dispatch and Insiders' Cures, and President of his exclusive line of nutritional supplements Smart Science Nutritionals.

Dr. Marc Micozzi is a true visionary. As a pathologist, epidemiologist, and medical anthropologist, he has spent his 40-year career pouring through ancient, historical folk remedies and modern science, uncovering REAL innovative health solutions.

And finally, after decades of research, he's created a truly unique blend of nutrients that can deliver the youthful energy and masculinity you've been longing for.

This revolutionary new formula is called Core Vitality for Men. And you can be one of the first to experience its remarkable power for yourself!

Core Vitality for Men can help you
LOOK, FEEL AND THRIVE
AS THOUGH YOU WERE YEARS YOUNGER!

In no time at all, "I'm too tired" can become a thing of the past...

"I don't feel up to it" might never again cross your mind...

"I'm not as young as I used to be" is true if you're counting candles, but not if you're talking about your sheer life force.

Finally! You CAN do anything—and everything—you thought you didn't have the energy or stamina for!

Because Marc S. Micozzi M.D., Ph.D., a maverick of true healing and wellness, has spent the last 40 years trying to correct the faulty “science, logic and reasoning” perpetuated by both mainstream medicine and the natural health know-it-alls.

He thrust the STAGGERING PROOF of complementary and alternative therapies in the face of mainstream medicine and demanded attention.

In fact, he was directly involved in some of the world's most recognized natural research—on findings with lycopene, lutein, brassica vegetables, and excess body iron.

Clearly, Dr. Micozzi is not your average doctor. Far from it.

Yet, in spite of his mainstream medical credentials, experience has shown him that the science of natural wellness often gets buried in bureaucracy, red taped and just plain ignored.

That's why his approach to true healing and wellness combines an in-depth understanding of both high-powered, high-tech mainstream medicine and the equally powerful and effective world of natural and nutritional medicine.

So when he first told me about his theories of healthy aging in men...

When he explained why this formula was so unique—so important...

When all of the pieces of the last 12 years of his research began falling into place...

It was time to get the message out so men like you could experience the remarkable difference for yourself!

And while there's still more research to be done, based on Dr. Micozzi's decades of work and experience, there's no longer any reason to wait!

He's seen enough of the historical evidence, in-vitro testing, animal models, and even small-scale human clinical trials to conclude...

This unique formula could help transform your health, your overall vitality and your perception of aging, forever.

Before you know it, you could start to feel like you're going from limp and lethargic to STRONG and revitalized...

From sluggish and withdrawn to ALIVE and playful...

From a couch potato to a VIBRANT dynamo...

Plus, as the weeks and months pass—as Core Vitality for Men continues to infuse each and every cell in your body—it can actually start to work even BETTER!

It's based on a centuries-old theory that our energy and longevity are directly tied to “tiny internal fires” burning throughout our bodies.

It turns out this long-forgotten concept couldn't be more correct. And it would have been lost forever had it not been for Dr. Micozzi's expertise in medical anthropology!

The key to youth, vitality and longevity comes from feeding and stoking your “internal fires”

Philosopher and scientist, Avicenna, was centuries ahead of his time when he wrote the The Canon of Medicine during the 11th century, AD.

And while working on a modern translation with his colleagues, Dr. Micozzi became intrigued by Avicenna's theory about “tiny internal fires” that keep us strong, vibrant and alive.

When he took a closer look at what Avicenna wrote about the link between declining moisture and declining heat, he realized it is actually a profoundly accurate description of how the mitochondria in each and every cell create energy AND water for the cells.

The energy you need to not only walk, talk, think, eat and sleep, but dance, play golf, keep up with your grandkids—every single function that makes you alive.

Even centuries ago, Avicenna had a remarkable understanding of cellular aging, respiration and today's painfully unaddressed concept of cellular hydration.

What Avicenna didn't have was a solution.

Could there be a nutrient powerful enough to naturally stoke those inner flames, restore cellular hydration and promote lasting youth, vigor, strength and longevity?

It turns out, there is.

It's a powerful compound that Dr. Micozzi calls Aspal—extracted from the South Africa red bush.

It was virtually unheard of until recently, but Dr. Micozzi's been studying it for years.

And you're among the first to learn about this incredible breakthrough.

Because, as it turns out, Aspal may help shuttle fuel into cells' mitochondria, stoking “inner flames,” producing real, lasting, natural energy.

Hydrating cells from the inside...

Solving Avicenna's ancient youth-preservation dilemma, and helping to...

Deliver a masculine vitality to your entire body like no other natural substance you've ever experienced!

Dr. Micozzi has personally witnessed the hydrating effects of Aspal extract. He even worked with college and professional athletes, coaches and trainers to test its effects.

And finally, recent in-vitro and animal studies have shed light on a possible mechanism of action. As well as additional health benefits beyond hydration. It turns out...

Aspal could be “the next big thing” when it comes to maintaining healthy blood sugar.

As I'm sure you've heard, maintaining healthy blood sugar levels plays a big part in ensuring steady energy and vitality.

Studies on mouse cells showed that Aspal helped muscle cells absorb more glucose from the blood stream.

Not only does this property help maintain healthy blood sugar levels, it also helps fire up energy-producing mitochondria and kicks vitality into high gear.

A study done on mice showed that one of the antioxidant components of Aspal could help stimulate healthy insulin production in the pancreas! And healthy insulin levels help maintain healthy blood sugar levels.

Of course, maintaining a healthy weight goes hand in hand with energy and vitality. And it's just as challenging to maintain a healthy weight as it is to maintain healthy blood sugar levels.

And once again, early research indicates Aspal may help here as well.

A 2014 in-vitro study showed that one of the active components in Aspal also helped prevent the accumulation of fat in fat cells while reducing production of an enzyme called leptin...

Leptin is a hormone that plays a key role in energy metabolism and has been at the center of research on weight loss.

And while more research in humans is needed, in Dr. Micozzi's experience, it all points to one direction...

Aspal has the potential to not only help maintain healthy blood sugar levels, but also help you...

Maintain a healthy weight— to keep you slim, fit, and active!

And that's STILL only the beginning of the Aspal story!

Aspal also contains youth-protecting antioxidants.

Among the most powerful is quercetin. Called a “titan among antioxidants,” quercetin helps support a healthy inflammatory response—supporting the heart and cardiovascular system.

Energy, vitality, blood sugar support, healthy weight and healthy inflammatory response—youth-preserving antioxidant power...

It’s amazing that Aspal has existed in virtual obscurity for so long!

And as with all antioxidants, Aspal can help defend the body against oxidative damage from free radicals. This free-radical damage has been linked to aging.

In-vitro and animal models have also shown that this unique antioxidant may help reduce the negative effects of stress and could contribute to longevity.

Everything you need to look your best, feel your best and live your best.

And while Aspal alone would be enough to create a supplement called Core Vitality for Men, this breakthrough goes so much further.

Because Aspal is even MORE POWERFUL when combined with...

The “Lion’s Tooth” that does it ALL

The scientists call it Taraxacum officinale.

But its more common name comes from the French, dent-de-lion, which means “Lion’s Tooth.”

And when it comes to super-charging your health, this Lion’s Tooth couldn’t be sharper.

Because research shows that the entire plant—flower, stem, leaves and root—can help deliver an amazing array of health benefits.

The entire plant is edible and out-delivers nutrient-rich heavyweights like spinach and broccoli in terms of beta carotene, fatty acids, fiber and protein.

It beats their variety of amino acids, and most vitamins and minerals as well.

Plus, Lion’s Tooth contains a variety of plant sterols and antioxidants.

But what it has isn’t nearly as impressive as what it can help do for your energy, vitality and overall wellness

Emerging evidence on plant sterols and antioxidants suggests, this unassuming garden weed may help support and maintain:

- Overall prostate health
- Healthy cholesterol
- A healthy inflammatory response
- Healthy immune system
- Healthy liver function

Plus, as seen in a mouse study, just like Aspal, Lion's Tooth may even help prevent fat absorption.

Another ace up your sleeve when it comes to maintaining a healthy weight

Lion's Tooth may naturally help reduce lipase—an enzyme produced by your pancreas to dissolve fats for digestion and absorption.

So, less lipase can mean less fat absorbed through digestion!

Certain extracts can also help pancreatic B-cells naturally produce insulin—that means even more blood sugar support.

And the powerful antioxidant, lutein, responsible for infusing the flower of the Lion's Tooth with its bright yellow color, is one of the few nutrients that can cross the blood/brain barrier.

Protecting your delicate brain cells and promoting healthy eyesight

Animal studies suggest Lion's Tooth also helps support liver health, a key component of overall health, energy and immune support.

Because, not only are we surrounded by chemicals and toxins every minute of every day, if you're also taking medications, your liver has to work even harder—draining energy you could be using to go out on the town!

Heart health, brain protection, prostate support, healthy eyesight and a healthy immune system—what more could you ask for?

How about a natural surge of MANLINESS?!

Testosterone is what makes men manly. It helps build lean muscle, boosts confidence and I'm sure I don't need to tell you what it does for you in the bedroom.

That's why when you turn on the TV, read the paper or listen to the radio, both the mainstream and alternative medicine worlds are peddling a variety of testosterone boosters to any man (and their spouses) who'll listen.

At best, it's money-driven junk science. But artificially forcing testosterone into your body can be downright dangerous to your heart and prostate, and overall health.

However, when researchers combined Aspal and Lion's Tooth, something really exciting happened

Natural testosterone production processes kicked into action.

Although the research is preliminary, in one animal study when Lion's Tooth and Aspal were combined, results showed:

- A 25% increase in physical activity
- A 43% boost in natural testosterone levels
- Increased quantity and quality of sperm production

And in the small four-week clinical study done on men mentioned earlier, using a standardized, 17-point questionnaire, subjects reported a 20% improvement in overall quality of life.

The questionnaire included things like: muscle strength, overall vitality, joint comfort, sleep habits, libido and more...!

And all of the emerging evidence indicates that this two-nutrient powerhouse can super-charge your vitality, your gusto, your strength and endurance.

Dr. Micozzi has understood this potential for years. And finally there's emerging research to support it.

It almost goes without saying, when you're physically healthier—you increase your chances of living longer.

This remarkable nutrient combination is not available anywhere else...

You're among the first to learn about its power...

You can be one of the first to experience Core Vitality for Men and:

- Wow your wife with your masculine confidence
- Attack your day with lasting natural energy from sun-up to sundown
- Outpace your buddies with your strength and endurance
- Impress yourself by the trim, fit, youthful you that continues to look back in the mirror

Core Vitality for Men starts going to work from day one, infusing each and every cell with youth-enhancing energy and support—some may notice a difference quickly.

But, stay the course for a month or two and watch out! As with most nutritional supplements, that's when the biggest benefits really begin to kick in.

There's nothing like this ANYWHERE

And in just another moment, I'll show you how to order Core Vitality for Men and try it for as long as you like—absolutely WORRY-FREE.

But keep watching, because...

Core Vitality for Men includes one of the most important nutrients for men over 50

Few doctors know the importance of lycopene better than Dr. Micozzi.

In fact, as powerful nutrient support goes, he puts lycopene at the very top of the “prostate health insurance” list.

And he would know because, 30 years ago, while doing original research on beta-carotene at the National Cancer Institute he discovered the abundance of lycopene in certain foods and its prominence in human metabolism and nutrition.

And while he predicted that beta-carotene by itself wouldn't do much in the way of prostate health, he discovered that...

Lycopene is a prostate health superstar!

Researchers from Brigham and Women's Hospital and the Harvard School of Public Health looked at 47,400 men enrolled in the Health Professionals Follow-Up Study. They found that those men who ate the most tomato sauce, which is rich in lycopene, had the healthiest prostates.

In addition—lycopene has been associated with a healthy heart and circulation.

A study published in the journal Neurology in 2012 found that eating tomatoes and tomato-based foods rich in lycopene were associated with healthier circulation. Researchers found that people with the highest amount of lycopene in their blood were 55 percent better off than those with the lowest amounts.

That means a daily serving of lycopene, combined with the other power-nutrients in Core Vitality for Men, is a sure-fire way to help ensure your heart and prostate stay in tip-top shape.

And lycopene's not the only heart- and prostate-supporting nutrient in Core Vitality for Men.

Oysters, long reputed as one of nature's most powerful male aphrodisiacs, got their reputation honestly. It was believed to be related to their high zinc content.

So it's not surprising to learn that the highest concentrations of zinc in your body can be found in your prostate.

A powerful antioxidant in its own right, zinc also helps you maintain a healthy immune system. And according to study reviews, it appears to support heart health too!

A perfect addition to...

The gold standard of renewed masculinity, vitality and longevity

No other men's health supplement today delivers this powerful combination of Aspal and Lion's Tooth...

No other men's health supplement combines clean, clear science with Nature's most powerful and revitalizing nutrients...

And no other men's health supplement is money-back guaranteed to help deliver lasting natural energy, slow the effects of aging (maybe even extend your lifespan!), promote masculine strength, confidence and vitality, support your prostate—even help support healthy blood sugar and lipid levels!
